4. Complete Streets Committee - Andy Klein (IVSCSC) 8:18
 - Crosswalk at 3rd Avenue- Concern that there isn't signage
 - Fifth to Fouth on Summit parking has been cut in half this month and has caused parking issues.
 - Wagenbrenner is wanting to make their southern development more pedestrian friendly. Traffic study on what to do with traffic off of 670. Doesn't appear there will be any dramatic changes to traffic but landscaping will be improved as well as signage to Short North and convention center. Looking at lower impact capital cost to make it pedestrian friendly but it doesn't look like 670 ramp on to 4th will be closed anytime soon.
 - August 31st, 2017 at 5:30p
5. Italian Village Commission Report – Shannon Fergus (IVC) 8:30
 - Last two months only 14/15 applications
 - Corso discussed plans that were proposed to Commission and those that were not.
 - Lincoln and Pearl: Parking lot behind level will become restaurant and bar, 4 stories above that will be residential and 49 spaces in parking garage.
 - Spring Cleaners project on 4th – Sausage factory is staying and so is house. – coded for retail
 - Townhomes / Condos on 5th and 4th
